If you are an existing client, then you may want to see Drew for a chart update. This will enable you to look more carefully at what is going on in your life at this time and what is coming up for you in the future. You may then plan your life more effectively with your unfolding karma in mind.

Or, you may want to do a Guided Healing Meditation which can only be done in person. Drew has been offering this healing modality for the past 25 years. Many lives have been wonderfully altered with this guided journey into the depths of your subconscious mind.

People have learned the reasons behind addictions and compulsions. Old wounds have been healed including physical and sexual abuse from childhood. And people who continually punish themselves with guilt complexes from past lives find themselves finally free of the shackles of self-sabotage. All wounds and negative behaviors can be reached and released by this journey into the depths of your being.

For those of you who have not yet had a consultation with Drew Lawrence, then the time may have now arrived.

I just finished listening to my CD from our last session together, three years ago. First of all, I want to thank you again for this amazing gift. I have listened to it a few times, usually sparingly, as I save it as a resource for when I feel I need it the most. But each time it adds new insight and I hear things I had not heard before. It is truly awe-inspiring.
